MAYOR'S WELCOME

As Mayor of South Dublin County, I am delighted to welcome you to History and Heritage 2016, a wonderful programme of events for summer 2016.

The programme includes the ever popular heritage walks of South Dublin County's Villages. Whether you're a local or a visitor, you can start exploring South Dublin's rich history on these guided walks. If you fancy getting out into the countryside, there are guided walks at Bohernabreena Reservoir, head for the Dublin Mountains Way, or to Massy's Woods where you can learn all about the fascinating history of this estate with historian Frank Tracy.

South Dublin County's Decade of Centenaries events continue this summer as we remember the 1916 Rising and the Battle of the Somme.

The events will also include talks, movie screenings, exhibitions, storytelling and much more!

So immerse yourself in the history and heritage of South Dublin County this summer with this FREE programme of guided heritage walks, talks, workshops and exhibitions. There really is something for everyone!

THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME

Tuesday 23rd August at 7:00 pm

The most watched film in British Cinema History. This year, Imperial War Museums (IWM) and members of the First World War Centenary Partnership are working together to show the UNESCO listed film The Battle of the Somme, to audiences across the world.
Shot and screened in 1916, it was the first feature length documentary about war and changed the way both cinema and film was perceived by the public.
In the year of its release around 20 million people, almost half the population of Britain at the time, watched The Battle of the Somme many hoping to see the image of a loved-one, or friend captured on film. One hundred years later, this unique film from IWM's collection, is being shown to commemorate the anniversary of the Battle of the Somme.

FORTUNE'S WHEEL

Friday 16th September at 7:30 pm (Culture Night)

Fortune's Wheel brings to life the remarkable, implausible story of a Fairview lion-tamer in Dublin in the 1950s. Bill Stephens was an ordinary young Dubliner, with an extraordinary dream – to become a skilled animal trainer and a big circus star. The dream became a reality for him and a nightmare for the people of Fairview when one of his lions escaped onto crowded streets in 1951. Winner of the Dublin Film Critics Circle Award for Best Irish Documentary at the Jameson Film Festival 2015. The screening will be followed by a short Q&A with film-maker John Lee.

PEARSE MUSEUM

St. Enda's Park, Grange Road,
Rathfarnham, Dublin 16
Tel: 01 4934208
www.pearsemuseum.ie
pearsemuseum@opw.ie

The Pearse Museum is located in the former home and school of Patrick Pearse, one of the leaders of the 1916 Rising. Originally built in the 18th century, the museum is surrounded by St. Enda's Park, one of the city's most charming and atmospheric parks. In 1910, Pearse opened Scoil Éanna here. He was an innovative educator, and the school played a significant role in the Gaelic Revival. It was also from here that he left, with his brother William, to fight in the Easter Rising of 1916.

The museum's collections consist of documents, photographs, books, art works and other artefacts related to Pearse and his family. Visitors experience St. Enda's as it was in Pearse's time through reconstructions of the rooms where he lived and worked.

The Pearse Museum also hosts an exciting events and exhibition programme. The on-site café is open seven days a week.

Opening arrangements:

Monday to Saturday: 9.30am - 5.30pm

Guided Tours:

Self-guided. Guided tours are available on request (duration 30 minutes). Admission is free. The museum is wheelchair accessible, with the exception of the Hall Mór. Admission is free of charge.
